THINKING MAPS®

Thinking Maps®: A Language for Leadership

May 12-13, 2017 | Port Charlotte, Florida

is designed for school leadership teams to ensure deeper levels of thinking and improved levels of student achievement. The purpose of Thinking Maps: A Language for Leadership is to use Thinking Maps as a common visual language in your learning organization for applying and improving thinking processes, communicating ideas and points of view, generating sustainable solutions, and assessing progress over time.

Participants in the training will:

- Tour Kingsway Elementary School in Port Charlotte, FL (A Highlight Thinking Maps School) to see Thinking Maps implementation in action with all students. Learn from their Thinking Maps Leadership team the impact of implementation on student learning.
- Review Thinking Maps® and identify effective ways to use them for leadership practices that support and advance Florida Principal Leadership Standards (FPLS) including improving communication, facilitating organizational change, problem solving, data analysis, decision making, and coaching/mentoring educators.
- Learn effective strategies that administrators have utilized to sustain and deepen Thinking Maps® implementation at the campus/district level.
- Review and learn to effectively utilize the Thinking Maps® Implementation Rubric to identify current levels and guide growth to deeper levels of Thinking Maps® implementation for administrators, teachers, students and schools.

If you are interested in bringing a team to this training, please register online or complete this form and fax or mail it to our office in Cary, NC.

Registration Fee: $499
