

THINKING MAPS®

Thinking Maps®: A Language for Leadership

June 9 and September 15, 2017 | Denver, Colorado

Thinking Maps®: A Language for Leadership...

is designed for school leadership teams to ensure deeper levels of thinking and improved levels of student achievement. The purpose of Thinking Maps: A Language for Leadership is to use Thinking Maps as a common visual language in your learning organization for applying and improving thinking processes, communicating ideas and points of view, generating sustainable solutions, and assessing progress over time.

Participants in the training will:

- Review Thinking Maps and how they can be applied for personal use in areas such as administrative decision-making and data analysis
- Learn how successful Thinking Maps implementation looks and sounds for campus/district administrators, teachers and students
- Learn effective strategies that administrators have used to sustain and deepen implementation of Thinking Maps at the campus/district level
- Review and learn to utilize the Thinking Maps Implementation Rubric to identify current levels and guide growth to higher levels of Thinking Maps implementation for administrators, teachers, students and schools

If you are interested in bringing a team to this training, please register online or complete this form and fax or mail it to our office in Cary, NC.
